“All of us in Burkentine are local to the marketplace in York and Adams County. I know for my family, and a lot of the others that I work with...we come to Gettysburg quite often to enjoy all the amenities that this town has to offer. It’s fun for us to be able to have a community like Gettysburg Overlook - to build some nice housing for individuals to live in.” – Bryan Burkentine, Owner of Burkentine Real Estate Group

“They’ve (The Burkentine Real Estate Group) used nearly a dozen local contractors to complete the beautiful residential community that’s around us. What does that mean for us? That means jobs. That means your friends, your family, and your neighbors have the opportunity to continue thriving. As we move forward from some challenging times, it’s incredibly important to have local companies that have that local commitment and support to the Adams County community and the surrounding regions.” - Carrie Stuart, President of the Chamber of Commerce for Gettysburg and Adams County

“The YWCA was founded on Gettysburg’s Lincoln Square in 1926, almost 100 years ago. We moved to Cumberland Township more than 40 years ago. The YWCA is truly a multigenerational facility. Our dedicated childcare staff cares for infants as young as six weeks old. Men and women well into their 90s use our pool and fitness center daily. More than 40 percent of our income comes from personal donations and sponsorships such as Burkentine’s Hallmark Sponsorship. On behalf of everyone at the YWCA, I welcome you to the neighborhood and am very thrilled to begin this exciting partnership.” – Alex Hayes, Fund Development Dir., YWCA Gettysburg and Adams County
