

biznews PA

WHO'S STEPPING UP: Patty Wivell. She has been promoted to vice president of finance and accounting for Burkentine Real Estate Group, the third member and first woman on the company's executive leadership team, which was created earlier this year.

- Wivell (pictured below) began working at the Hanover-based real estate development company about two years ago.
- She was most recently the company's controller and has been working to support the company's growth.
- While it has its roots in Central Pennsylvania and northern Maryland, Burkentine has been venturing into other states.
- It is currently developing more than 11,000 residential rental units at projects in Connecticut, North Carolina and Tennessee. It is considering additional projects in Alabama, Colorado, Florida, Georgia and South Carolina, according to a press release.

